

NEW YORK REGION TO HOLD ELECTION Spirited Contests Expected To- day for State Department Offices. OPPOSE POLITICAL ACTION National Commander Asks for More Activity in Getting Laws for Service Men.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. ALBANY, Sept. 10.—With several candidates for 1920, a lively contest is expected to-morrow morning at the annual election of the American Legion. The nominations were made this afternoon.

For State Commander there are three candidates: Charles G. Blaisdell, Corporation Counsel of Binghamton; William R. Pooley of Buffalo, and Walter G. Ingalls of Albany. Thomas F. Ward, Jr., of Brooklyn, and William Deegan of New York are the candidates for First Vice-Commander. For Third Vice-Commander the candidates are A. Bart Peterson of Jamestown, Clyde R. Hunt of New York, and Thomas J. Skinner of Schenectady.

State Adjutant Samuel Aronowitz of this city withdrew from the race for reelection because of the candidacy of Ingalls for State Commander, leaving H. A. Wayne of Brooklyn as the only candidate for Adjutant. For State Treasurer the candidates are J. L. Seligman of New York, present incumbent, and L. C. Tuckerman of Schenectady.

The report that the resolutions committee was considering a presentation of a resolution to take part in political campaign for the support or endorsement of candidates for public office, has been a lively discussion on the subject this afternoon. Past National Commander Henry D. Lindsay of New York asked that the delegates vote down any resolution to throw the department into politics. He said it would be a serious mistake and would sacrifice the independence of the organization. It is impossible under the present by-laws and constitution. Franklin J. Oiler of Philadelphia, the national commander, reported to the convention the action of the conference of Gov. Smith and State officials at which it was decided to erect a memorial for world war veterans. He asked that the State department work for a stronger organization, so that it can get more effective results in the way of legislation for service men.

STATE WILL ERECT HOSPITAL FOR VETS To Provide for 900 Demented in World War.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. ALBANY, Sept. 10.—At a conference of Gov. Smith and State officials to-day with R. G. Cholmondeley-Jones, director of the War Risk Insurance Bureau at Washington, it was decided to have erected by New York State a hospital for care and treatment of world war veterans who have become insane. The Legislature will have to appropriate about $1,000,000 to carry out a plan which was suggested by State Architect Lewis F. Piller. It is intended to have the hospital with no locked wards, on Long Island or somewhere in New York. The need of the new institution is accentuated by the already overcrowded condition of the State hospitals for the insane.

It is said that the average age of the demented soldier is 23—when physicians claim the curative possibilities are the highest. It is believed that the hospital can be entirely cured with proper treatment.

OLD TIME WHEELS SPIN AROUND HUB Two Day Run Starts at Rox- bury.

Boston, Sept. 10.—Ancient velocipedes and high wheeled bicycles once more trundled through the streets to-day when old time peddlers took part in the annual "wheel around the Hub." Mounted on the machines of other days, the wheelmen pedaled over roads made greasy by morning rains which added something of adventure to their laborious advance. The run which will last two days, was started from Roxbury.

The bicyclists will stop to-night at Mansfield after pushing around a foot-hill of the Blue Hills, and to-morrow will return by way of the south shore.

$50,000 IN BONDS STOLEN

Shipments Taken From Train Near Cornelia, Ga.
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 10.—A shipment of bonds understood to be valued at $50,000 was stolen from a Southern railway train near Cornelia, Ga., last night, according to dispatches received here late to-day.

The first knowledge of the loss was when a station agent at Cornelia investigated smoke in the station lavatory and found partly burned papers and a rifle mail pouch, the Cornelia reports said.

EXPLAINS RAISIN TRUST SUIT.

Head of Concern Says It Involves Farmers' Right to Organize.
FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 10.—The suit filed against the California Associated Raisin Company, seeking its dissolution as a combination in restraint of trade, involves only the question of the right of farmers to organize to sell their own products, said W. M. Giffen, president of the concern, in a statement to-day.

The action was filed by the United States District Attorney at Los Angeles and would prevent execution of contracts for raisins made by the company and the growers.

SEEK TO RESTRAIN FORD IN RAIL DEAL

Minority Stockholders of Ironton Road Oppose Lease.

Frederick Osborn, vice-president and general manager of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad Company, filed yesterday in the Supreme Court an answer to the injunction proceedings brought by minority stockholders of the company to prevent Henry Ford and his son from leasing the road for seventy-five years.

The Ford and their corporation, the Ford Motor Company, recently purchased the Detroit and Ironton Railroad Company, which proposed to lease the road, which connects Detroit with the Iron and coal fields of Ironton, Ohio. The minority stockholders, seeking the injunction, asserted that the lease would be a bad bargain and render their stock worthless.

In reply Osborn says 98 per cent. of the stock and bond owners favored the lease as the only means of keeping the road out of the hands of a receiver.

He states the road must earn $20,000 a mile to pay a profit, and it has never earned more than $10,000 a mile. For twenty years he added, the road has been run at a loss, never having paid any interest to security holders. The floating indebtedness exceeds the assets by $140,000 and the company's credit was so low that dealers would not advance supplies. In 1915 and 1919, under Government operation, the road lost $122,000 and $126,000, respectively.

Osborn estimates it will require $2,000,000 to pay the railroad's debts and $10,000,000 for rolling stock and equipment. A new bridge must be erected at a cost of $500,000.

MORGAN BOND SALE BONUS CALLED FAIR

Boston Banker Says 3-1-2 Per Cent. for N. Y. Central Flotation Was Earned.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. ALBANY, Sept. 10.—Hearings in the New York Central bond case involving the fairness of charges made for floating the loan of $25,000,000 were held to-day before W. A. Colston, Interstate Commerce Commission examiner. Principal witnesses were George Whitney, representing J. P. Morgan & Co., who floated the loan, and John E. Oldham, Co., Boston investment bankers.

Both witnesses gave testimony to refute representations made to the commission that the 3 1/2 per cent. charged the railroad was excessive. Mr. Whitney said that J. P. Morgan & Co. got only one-half of 1 per cent. for their part in the transaction, and Mr. Oldham said that banks would not bother with a railroad issue which did not offer them a 2 per cent. commission.

Mr. Whitney explained that Morgan & Co. did not sell the bonds directly, but organized a syndicate of 462 investment bankers, which had been organized in the syndicate the firm receiving the syndicate a 3 per cent. commission, Mr. Whitney said.

Concerning the fairness of the charge Mr. Whitney said it was not unusual and, indeed, was not higher than Morgan & Co. had collected for floating former issues. He instanced cases where the Morgan firm had taken an issue at 90 and turned it over to investment bankers at 97, who in turn sold it at par.

The witness explained that the principal work of Morgan & Co. was in forming the syndicate and securing care and its experience in picking out the banks that would take a certain quantity of the bonds and tried to dispose of them. They are paid 1 1/2 per cent. for finding an investor, and as much more when the profits of the syndicate are distributed. After deducting all expenses of the transaction the syndicate realizes a net profit of 10 per cent. more than one per cent, Mr. Whitney figured.

There were about 6,400 subscribers to the New York Central issue, Col. Colston asked Mr. Whitney if this did not make the cost of flotation from $110 to $129 to a subscriber. Mr. Whitney said it did.

Col. Colston made a series of inquiries to determine if there was any interlocking among New York Central officials and officers of the banks which were members of the syndicate. Albert H. Harris, vice-president of the New York Central, said there was no such case, with the exception of Bertram Cutler, who was on the board of the Equitable Trust Company.

Mr. Oldham in explaining why banks considered a charge of 2 per cent. necessary for retailing railroad bonds said there had been an increase from 50 to 100 per cent. in the cost of selling bonds because of increased risks, salaries and traveling expenses. He said his firm would not have accepted the New York Central issue at 2 per cent. investment bankers get their income from such sales and it is much service to clients without charge.

Further hearings will be held before the commission makes a decision.

GIRL, 17, DISAPPEARS.

Reported to Have Cut Off Her Hair and Departed in Boat.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 10.—Miss Louisa Fletcher, 17 years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stoughton A. Fletcher of Indianapolis, was sought by the police to-day. The girl, who had been in the care of a governess at the family home at Grapevine Cove, in the absence of her parents, disappeared yesterday.

A fisherman said he had seen a young woman cut off her hair and change her clothing, apparently putting on a pair of overalls.

Others on the water front reported to the police that they saw some one in overalls with a pair of oars going over the rocks near a point from which a rowing club disappeared overnight. Acting on this information the police made a close search of the harbor and nearby shores to-day.

FIFTY VICTIMS OF DYNAMITE.

Explosion in Callao Harbor Breaks
Windows in Lima.

LIMA, Peru, Sept. 10.—Fifty persons are reported as killed or injured in an explosion in Callao Bay this morning which destroyed the dynamite barges colliding. Apparently there was no serious damage to shipping in the bay, but the tops were blown off six petroleum tanks ashore and thousands of windows were broken in Callao.

The concussion also smashed many windows in Lima, eight miles from the scene.

FLAWS IN HIS TALE OF WIFE'S DROWNING

Kuehling Alone When He Rented Canoe to Paddle
on the Potomac.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Failure to recover the body of Mrs. Gertrude Vicer Kuehling and the discovery of several circumstances regarded by the police as worthy of investigation to-day converted into a mystery her husband's story of drowning while canoeing with him on the Potomac River Wednesday night. Her husband Kuehling, the husband, is held by the police for investigation, and preparations have been made to send two boats up the river to-morrow in an effort to see if there may be brought to the surface.

Mrs. Kuehling, who was the divorced wife of George Osgood of Detroit and one of the heirs to the million dollar estate of Elizabeth, Clapton of that city, recently had asked an attorney to file suit for divorce against her second husband. The first husband arrived in Washington to-day to assist in running out the many thousands of his wife, starting much of the time in which she might have been saved in fumbling at a fur coat under her cap and hat, and which a few minutes before he said his wife had been drowned.

Kuehling's arrest occurred a few hours after at their home in Woodside, Md., a suburb of Washington, on a technical charge of desertion from the army. Charges against him have been filed by the War Department, which was held for investigation chiefly upon information obtained by the police that his wife recently contemplated divorcing him and that only a few days ago she had been treated at a hospital for poisoning.

Efforts of the police to find some one who had seen Kuehling and his wife together Wednesday night have been fruitless. They have brought from the man whom he rented the boat the statement that Kuehling was alone when he engaged it.

Kuehling's record includes an effort to obtain a place in the secret service, and there are on file at the headquarters of the service two letters recommending him for such work, one signed by Senator Charles McNamara and the other by Senator Harding. Kuehling and Mrs. Osgood were married December 30, 1919, at Mount Clemens, Mich.

BUTCHER INVOLVED IN COLLEGE INTRIGUE

University Professor Accuses
Wife of Insubordination.

Special to THE SUN and NEW YORK HERALD. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A summons for Mrs. Cyrus Palmer, whose husband, a University of Illinois professor, accused her of meeting a Chicagoan butcher in his refrigerator three times a week, was issued to-day. Deputy sheriffs who went to her apartment said they could not find her.

In the meantime Prof. Palmer, who is in Chicago, said that in addition to the divorce suit begun against his wife in Illinois, he is now preparing an attention suit for $50,000 against Carl A. Carlson, butcher.

Prof. Palmer also protested that further revelations in his divorce action would draw other university people into the scandal.

"I have done everything I could to keep the scandal in which my wife was involved from being aired," he said. "When she filed suit for divorce in Chicago, however, it was impossible to keep the matter hidden any longer."
